Pale Waves

Started with a look, it didn't take that much
You went and stole all of my devotion

I should know better, we can't be together
But I don't wanna be stuck in reality

You and I, will stay in my
Imagination
All the time, on my mind
Fascination
My hands on your waist, you give me a taste
You don't hold back, it's no mistake
I hate the way it has to stay
In my, in my imagination

I don't have a choice
I'm tryna fill the void
I've loved you for so long
Well, it's been years

I should know better, we can't be together
But I don't wanna be
Stuck in reality

You and I, will stay in my
Imagination
All the time, on my mind
Fascination
My hands on your waist, you give me a taste
You don't hold back, it's no mistake
I hate the way it has to stay
In my

And I try, not sure why
Every single time
In the back of my mind
I'll make you mine
I'm afraid it's not the way it goes, so

You and I, will stay in my
Imagination
All the time, on my mind
Fascination
My hands on your waist, you give me a taste
You don't hold back, it's no mistake
I hate the way it has to stay
In my, in my imagination
