

Last Train Home

Pale Waves

When she touched me
I looked the other way
Always thinking
What others would say
I wasn't ready
And she was all set
I kept her hoping
For promises

She's the secret
I kept all along
Always waiting for it to be told
Dancing round the truth but I don't wanna live in this disguise
I'll be by the platform
She's the last train home
Home, home
The last train home
Home, home

As I look for the long red hair
And her dad's coat
That she loved to wear
I miss the dragon on the top of her back
I couldn't answer
The question she'd always ask
Oh, I'm such a fool

She's the secret
I kept all along
Always waiting for it to be told
Dancing round the truth but I don't wanna live in this disguise
I'll be by the platform

Oh, how I wish things were different
But I let her slip through my fingers
The lights are switched off
And the station is closed
She's miles away
The last train home

Home, home
Home, home, home
Home, home, home
Home, home, home
