

Slow

Pale Waves

Oh, I fear that I don't have a choice
All I do is drown inside your voice
The thought of you is taking over me
I wish you'd give me some kind of guarantee
And I keep sitting in the dark
Wondering where your heart is
Like a broken doll looking for it's parts
You're the thread that stitched me up
With just one touch

Dreaming
Am I dreaming?
'Cause it's about time that I let you know
I've got these feelings, all they do is show
Breathing
Am I breathing?
Screaming your name as I lose control
I want you right now but if it's better, we can take it slow

Oh, you love to keep me waiting
And I'm worried I've been mistaken
Am I the fool that you keep on playing?
'Cause that's what everyone keeps on saying
You stitched me up
With just one touch

Dreaming
Am I dreaming?
'Cause it's about time that I let you know
I've got these feelings, all they do is show
Breathing
Am I breathing?
Screaming your name as I lose control
I want you right now but if it's better, we can take it slow
Take it slow

Dreaming
Am I dreaming?
'Cause it's about time that I let you know
I've got these feelings, all they do is show
Breathing
Am I breathing?
Screaming your name as I lose control
I want you right now but if it's better, we can take it slow
Take it slow

Dreaming
Am I dreaming?
