Paleface

Hatred

Hate

I thought this world was kind, a place of brighter light

But all I found was an endless fucking night

Everything is absolutely fucked. Shit.

Fuck this world, I'd rather be unseen

Walking alone, under a clouded sky of shame

All I see are shadows, all I see is man-made mistakes

Fuck it

Feel my hatred

I saw the world in shades of hope and endless trust

But all that's left now is nothing else than dust

Everything is absolutely fucked

Hatred

Come and feel my fucking hatred

Now come and feel my fucking hatred

Go

This world, I've grown to it hate its face

A realm of fakeness, fallen from grace

The pain of the voiceless, a deafening scream

In a world where I lost my dream

And a world without a dream is not a place wanna be so put a bullet through my head and I'll be free

Put that fucking bullet through my head

Feel my fucking hatred

Feel it

Feel my fucking hatred

I need you to feel it

My hate is last to die

In this hopeless world

This is hatred
