

Black Friday

Palehound

When I ask if you want to spend the day with me
You say, "Sure, I've got nowhere else to be"
I'll take being the last one on your mind
Still squeeze me in, never cared about waiting on your line

And I remember the days you'd break my heart in other ways
Before you said we'd keep in touch
Before you said we'd keep in touch
I don't hear from you too much
If you need to call me
I'm too weak to hold your grudge

When I ask you, "Are you seeing the same guy?"
You seem confident he's sticking around this time
I'll take being the last one that you call
You're Black Friday and I'm going to the mall

And I remember the days you'd break my heart with just a face
Before you said we'd keep in touch
Before you said we'd keep in touch
I don't hear from you too much
If you need to call me
I'm too weak
Before you said we'd keep in touch
Before you said we'd keep in touch
I don't hear from you too much
If you need to call me
I'm too weak to hold a grudge

Before you said we'd keep in touch
Before you said we'd keep in touch
Before you said we'd keep in touch
