

Those days I spent with spoiled men
My skin was warm and glowed like hell
But now I'm not alone, 'cause I've got my mom
My dad and my sister and the dogs

Before you go, strap me to the bed, I feel it getting it cold a gain
The bed is getting cold again

Those days they torched with me in tow
My skin was charred, and white with snow
But now I'm not alone 'cause I watch TV
Cartoons, and the news, all starring me

Before you go, strap me to the bed, I feel it getting it cold a
gain
The bed is getting cold again
(The bed is getting cold again)
The bed is getting cold again
