Ghost

Palisades

Hey, hey
Hey, hey

Hey, can you save me?
I can feel myself slowly fading
And my fear has turned to this
An empty black abyss

Trust in me but you don't believe
You can't see nothing
You won't feel anything

I'm a ghost, you don't need me
Need me
You let go, couldn't reach me
You weren't reaching out
Hey, hey
Hey, hey

It, it doesn't phase you
That the walls you place I would run through
'Cause to you it's just a dream
A moonlight memory

Trust in me but you don't believe
You can't see nothing
You won't feel anything

I'm a ghost, you don't need me
Need me
You let go, couldn't reach me
Reach me
You let me float away
You cut me out of the frame
And nothing really matters if it can't feel the same
I'm a ghost, couldn't reach me
You weren't reaching out

Can't you hear the sounds of the cracks in your room
Banging on the tiles just to scream out to you
My voice became a whisper that you'll grow to replace
And I'll be stuck in hell and you'll forget my face
Hey, hey
Hey, hey

I'm a ghost, you don't need me
Need me
You let go, couldn't reach me
Reach me
You let me float away
You cut me out of the frame
And nothing really matters if it can't feel the same
I'm a ghost, couldn't reach me

Hey, hey
Hey, hey
