

Dropout

Pallbearer

I could go out
But what if I'm seen
The world in here is fine
Drop it all

Distract me
From my distraction
No need to decide
Drop it all

Let my broken thoughts
Do what they always do
For a while there I thought about a change [?]
Into yesterday

I could reach out
But what is [?]
What is there to share
Drop it all

Plenty of places
To hide your secrets
The smile goes so far
Drop it all

I'd love to feel
What I can barely remember
For a while there I thought about a change [?]
Into yesterday

As the candle burns away
Through cracks in myself I'm losing it
And don't have long to stay
For a while I hoped I might invent some other way
Looking for some answers but I don't know what to say
