

Surrender

Paloma Faith

Saw you on my street again, in the shadows
Innocent, I found you
I found you
A victim of your circumstance
I just didn't have the heart to leave you
I couldn't leave you
You've seen too much hurt and pain
You say you won't love again
But you will
Oh, you will

Suddenly, there's nothing that I wouldn't do

Let go, surrender
Just stay with me
Lie low, surrender
Don't go, don't leave

Heavy rest your heart and soul
I can be the light that will surround you
I will surround you
I can wipe those tears away
You should know that I will stay beside you
I'll stay beside you

Suddenly, there's nothing that I wouldn't do

Let go, surrender
Just stay with me
Lie low, surrender
Don't go, don't leave

Suddenly, there's nothing that I wouldn't do

Lie low
Surrender
We're both pretenders
Please stay with me

Let go, surrender
Just stay with me
We're both pretenders
Please stay with me

Let go, surrender
Just stay with me
