

Wait A Minute

Pamungkas

All alone in my old car
Driving fast, driving too far
All alone in my old car
Heading south, going back home to you

All alone with the street lights
Moving faster, now it's midnight
All alone, with the street lights
Heading south, going back home to you

Your arms where I belong
Always

Well wait a minute
I am on my way
I am on my way back home to you
Promise I'll be there
I'll be there just in time
Just a minute, wait a minute
Ooh

Bones are aching
I miss you, you know?
Crave your kiss
Now I need you
Fill me now 'cause I want you
Wait a minute till I get back to you

The battle is off now
I'm coming back
There will be no more days
You have to wait
And when your nights are low
And when you feel so strong
I'll be around, I'll be around
But you gotta, you gotta

You wait a minute
I am on my way
I am on my way
Back home to you
Promise I'll be there
I'll be there just in time
Just a minute
I know you can't wait
It's getting closer now
It's getting closer to
Be home to you
Promise you'll stay there
I'll be there just in time
Just a minute
Ooooh, hooo

Don't go back to bed
Don't fall asleep now
(I'll be there, I'll be there, I will)
Ayy, gonna be just us

Tomorrow will be ours, ours

Well, wait a minute
I am on my way
I am on my way back home to you
Promise I'll be there

Well wait a minute
And I'll be there just in time
Just a minute (wait, wait)
Just a minute
Ooh, wait a minute
