

Heartbeat

Panama

Take me by the hand, you want me
Take me by the hand, you need me
Take me by the hand, you take me in

I can't hold out, I can't deny
I can't ever compete with you
Take me by the hand, please take me in

Take me up into the moonlight
Take me on a joyride tonight
Take me by the hand, you take me in

I can't hold out, I can't deny
There is no one here but you
Take me by the hand and let me in

There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no honesty here
There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no honesty here
There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no honesty here
It's another week in a heartbeat young
In a heartbeat, in a heartbeat

Take me by the hand, you want me
Take me by the hand, you need me
Take me by the hand and I will give in

All that's left is doubt on my mind
I'm so confused by the thought of you
Take me by the hand and let me in

There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no honesty here
There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no honesty here
There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no honesty here
It's another week in a heartbeat young
In a heartbeat, in a heartbeat

There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no, there is no, there is no
There is no, there is no, there is no
