

Trust Me

Pandora

Yeah baby, you gotta trust me...
Let you down (2x)
Ha! You're D Smart K
It's time to define this silly situation
You and I together in a relation
Why why why won't you let me know
Which of the ways that I should go
It's time to tell let me off the hook
You know me I'm playin' by the book
And all I'm askin' in return
Is for you to show me which way to turn

Trust me I'll be the one
Who fight for you when things go wrong
Trust me I'll never let you down
Let you down
Let you down

Back to reject let me ask you a question
Is it for the fun or the real affection
There's no time now you decide
If the future in life is a positive one
I keep on believin' still got the feelin'
Got you on my mind and that's what's appealin'
But livin' everything for the pleasure and lust
Baby it's a question of trust

Trust me I'll be the one
Who fight for you when things go wrong
Trust me I'll never let you down
Let you down
Let you down

You gotta trust me
