I´ll Never Be the Same

Pantommind

When this silence makes me deaf,
I go back to the end of illusions.
When the dark sky makes me blind,
please let me be or let me go.

In this gallery I walk alone,
in every frame, all I see is you.
My pain goes on, my time has come to ask the past for one more chance...

So did you call again my name?
Your last and dying scream –
I'll never be the same.
And when the light becomes so dim,
I'll raze the chains of hate.
I'll never be the same again.

I won't give up on reaching the stars,
still crucified by my lonely past.
These empty feelings in my heart.
I just beg and plead for this to be the end...

So did you call again my name?
Your last and dying scream –
I'll never be the same.
And when the light becomes so dim,
I'll break the chains of hate.
I'll never be the same again.
