

Chill Button

Papoose

Uh
Yeah

I'm an executive back-to-back business moves consecutive Positive, while everything you doing is negative
My residence is on the throne where all the legends live
It's evident that you reside where all the peasants live
Never give to the ungrateful, where there's imperative
Won't appreciate it 'cause they don't got no respect to give
Some people ravages take, but they will never give
They don't count they blessings 'cause they don't know what the blessing is Most say family ain't everything, but yes it is
The lesson is, it don't make us family just 'cause we relatives
Always had knowledge of self, I've been intelligent
Periodically, idiocity is irrelevant

If you feel something, kill something
If I see a op, I won't stop 'til I drill something
I already did you dirty, and I'm still coming
They keep telling me to chill but I ain't got no chill button
I ain't got no chill button
I ain't got no chill button
No, I ain't got no chill button

They not like us, they never rode the back of that white boss
With handcuffs on gettin' transported to Rikers
C74 with the bing monsters and lifers
Latin Kings and Muslims, the Five Percenters was righteous
The Brownsville Bed-Stuy block party survivor
Going toe to toe with some real spitters in ciphers
Rotten in the rain, a hooptie with no wipers
Had to sell crack 'cause my daughter needed some diapers
Help you fight your case from the inside, a writer
The Law Library and technicality finder
Place the trial minutes and paperwork in the binder
Lick the envelope, I sealed it with my saliva
Rocky Balboa, I got the "Eye of the Tiger"
I'ma paint the walls with your blood, no primer
Shot him in his arm, the accuracy of a sniper
Giving out arm shots like Moderna and Pfizer

If you feel something, kill something
If I see a op, I won't stop 'til I drill something
I already did you dirty, and I'm still coming
They keep telling me to chill but I ain't got no chill button
I ain't got no chill button
I ain't got no chill button
No, I ain't got no chill button
