

Maturity

Papoose

Settled down in holy matrimony, it's levels now
I could tell you meant every word soon as you said your vows
Bedazzled, diamond stones sewn in the wedding gown
The embroidery hand-crafted, sixty-seven thou'
Chantilly lace veil white as the heavens cloud
The uncrowned queen, always knew you would get the crown

I like the way that you walk (I like the way that you walk)
I like the way that you talk (I like the way that you talk)
I like the way that you smile (I love your smile)
I think I like your style (I think I like your style)

Pretty as a mermaid, deep waters, you never drown
Traditional ceremony done in front of a pleasant crowd
"Speak now or forever hold your peace," he said it loud
Don't even dig your own grave, just put the shovel down
Haters got a devilish grin, they livin' hella foul
God hath before us, we don't care if the Devil smiles
Playin' music when we make love just for the special sound
The equalizer, turn up the bass, bring the treble down
Responsible, reliable husband, you hold your head up proud
Place you on a pedestal, promise I never let you down
Older men messin' with little girls, they pedophiles
They can never garnish the stripes away from a general
Hermes perfume, the Bottega Veneta blouse
Dressed in businesswoman attire, you got a clever style

I like the way that you walk (I like the way that you walk)
I like the way that you talk (I like the way that you talk)
I like the way that you smile (I love your smile)
I think I like your style (I think I like your style)

I like the way that you dress (Stay fly)
I really think you the best (That's no lie)
I like the way that you smile (I love your smile)
I think I like your style (I think I like your style)

Brown skin, nice complexion, keep it a thousand
Fountain of Youth, you been drinkin' out of that fountain
Makin' investments, tractor-trailers and houses
View from my window I see vultures and falcons
In the skyscraper we live, high as a mountain
Long way from sellin' them birds, halves and ounces
Cupid shot me with his arrow, a dangerous sniper
Our bond worth more than a billion, raise the price up
Women excited by our love, it makes 'em hyper
The queens say they all admire the way he wifed her
Me you and the baby, haters ain't nothin' like us
Knowledge, wisdom and understandin', don't break the cipher
If it's rainin' then I'ma fix it, you break a wiper
You don't even need a mechanic, I'll change your tire
Accept your flaws and your perfections with same desire
You go through somethin', I'm goin' with you, face the fire (Fire, fire, fire)

I like the way that you walk (I like the way that you walk)
I like the way that you talk (I like the way that you talk)

I like the way that you smile (I love your smile)
I think I like your style (I think I like your style)

I like the way that you dress (Stay fly)
I really think you the best (That's no lie)
I like the way that you smile (I love your smile)
I think I like your style (I think I like your style)
