

Proper Song

Paprika Korps

Process of creation was hard, but a rareful part three dub machines were computing up the sound of drum and bass through (?)days and trancelike sleeping nights

It is a right song, it is a proper one Melodies are from the higher mind (but in easy kind) accessed with the most controversial plan and most jarning(?) rum from the funniest part of responsibilit y Yard
It is a right song, it is a proper one

It is a proper song, it is a right one
It has an O, an A, an I quality signs
It has succeded verification of the Woldwide Reggae Federation and has the fat Stoners Advisory stamp It is a right one although it seems to lack a word of (?) that caused some problems with that filling forms of the office of lyrics and costs a lot of other paper work
