

Like You

Parade

Ooh getcha body, body
Come getcha body, body
Ooh getcha body, body
Come getcha body, body

You wanted to get out, so you got out
I wanted to talk, so you ran out
Came chasing after me with a box of chocolates
Stop playing my heart with all your politics
Stop playing my heart with all your politics now

You made it kinda hazy in your smoke filled room
I never really understood what you were going to do
But I guess that's just you, I guess that's just you
Promises, promises, yeah, I promised you

I promised you, you'd regret the day that we part
'Cause when he walked in butterflies took over my heart
And he's the one that I've been looking for from the start
When I say

I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy who truly understands how to treat a woman
And never let me go

Like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy who will wrap me up tight, just the way I like
And never let me go, like you

Ooh getcha body, body
Come getcha body, body
Ooh getcha body, body
Come getcha body, body

I was standing there for you to let me know
You're too scared to love me and let me go

So don't you look at me and bite your bottom lip
I can't even hear you cos you're mumbling
M-m-m-mumbling

I promised you, you'd regret the day that we part
When he walked in butterflies took over my heart
And he's the one that I've been looking for from the start
When I say

I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy who truly understands how to treat a woman
And never let me go

Like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy who will wrap me up tight, just the way I like
And never let me go, like you

Ooh getcha body, body
Come getcha body, body
Ooh getcha body, body
Come getcha body, body

Ooh getcha body, body
Come getcha body, body
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Hey boy, you know
There's nobody else I would choose

Your words stop me from burning
I'm returning for you

Don't stop what you're doing
Just keep doing what you do
Doing what you do
Need a boy like you

Baby I can do all
I can to keep us on track

I've really fallen for you
I don't know how to act

Keep doing it like this
Just keep doing it like that
Just do it like that

I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy who truly understands how to treat a woman
And never let me go

Like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy like you (like you, yeah)
I need a boy who will wrap me up tight, just the way I like
And never let me go, like you
