

Face to the sun
No time to turn and run
Prey to the sea
The waves so violent gleam

Nothing in this world could dream
Such a serenade would set us free

Plague from the tides
Plague from the tides
Desolations rising high
Drifting debris
Drifting debris
In depths, your fortunes cease

No one in this world perceived
Death with devastating majesty

Raging unholy waters take me
A promised enemy
Bracing unholy waters cleanse me
An honest agony

As sickness comes for me
Understand this dire fate
Just time we've gotta face until we fade

As nature comes for me
Understanding higher state
The hours we're gonna face until that day

Raging unholy waters take me
A promised enemy
Bracing unholy waters cleanse me
An honest agony

Nature comes for me
Nature comforts me
