

Hear the Night

Paradise Lost

Waiting is the fool
All desire consumed
All we symbolise
We gaze at walls that burn eternal
Ending hours entombed
Pleading madness rules
As we sympathise
Ablaze the walls that burn infernal

Look in the darkness to take a place
Obscured in madness, awake the grey

See the night, desire the fear
You need it now
Hear the night, desire the fear
You need it now
A call from the grave
See the night, desire the fear
You need it now
A call from the grave
Hear the night, desire the fear
You need it now
A call from the grave

Bleeding hearts demanding our blood
Agonise beyond the shroud
Vapid eyes demanding our gods
Destroyed to the ground

Waiting is the fool
All desire consumed
All we symbolise
We gaze at walls that burn eternal

Look for the darkness to take a place
Obscured in darkness, awake the grey

See the night, desire the fear
You need it now
Hear the night, desire the fear
You need it now
A call from the grave
See the night, desire the fear
You need it now
A call from the grave
Hear the night, desire the fear
You need it now
A call from the grave
