

it's deep in the mind
so slick by design
i'll end up the same way maybe

don't hold on to pride you'll lose if you try you'll end up the same way someday

lord i'm on my way, don't let me down

can't feel it inside how long can it hide you'll end up the same way maybe redemption denied as life passes by i'll end up the same way someday

gets deeper inside so strong the divide
i'll end up the same way maybe
don't lose an insight abuse till you die we'll all end the same way someday
