The Devil Embraced

Paradise Lost

I'm tired of dreams, I'm tired of almost everything
Dreams deceive and living never lasts
Too tired to sleep, denial of grief awakes my sins
Too weak to breathe, from living in deaths hands

Underneath. A shadow falling
Unbelieving prayers for all who die

Foolish trust, in reverent pain
Foolish trust, the Devil embraced
Foolish trust

I'm trying to give, forgiving is meaning for myself
To see is believe, just remnants of my past

Underneath. A shadow falling
Unbelieving prayer for all who die

Foolish trust, in reverent pain
Foolish trust, the Devil embraced
Foolish trust, in reverent pain
Foolish trust, the Devil embraced

There's nothing more to lose, the pain is over
There's nothing more to lose, now it's over

To enslave, extinction of self-worth

Chains of rust in this kingdom for the dead
Burn to dust for this wisdom we all dread

Underneath. A shadow falling
Unbelieving prayer for all who die

Foolish trust, in reverent pain
Foolish trust, the Devil embraced
Foolish trust, in reverent pain
Foolish trust, the Devil embraced
