

World Pretending

Paradise Lost

Washed out your simple world,
But it seems to reappear,
Without, your simple words,
You cannot interfere
And now it's so absurd what you're saying to me now
Your worlds pretending
You're saying to me now
Your worlds pretending
You're saying to me now
Your worlds pretending
And for your "so called" friends
They always seemed so dear
But when it all got worse
They seemed to disappear
And now it's so absurd what you're saying to me now
Your worlds pretending
You're saying to me now
Your worlds pretending
You're saying to me now
Your worlds pretending
