

Apophis

PARADOX

Heading through the dark, a boulder in the time
Billion years of age, searching for a target to find
Death is on his way, the cataclysm force
People start to pray: "Creator, make the rock go off course!"

Earth, your time is running out now
Clash is all that's for sure
Cursed and on the rush we fear
That times immemorial left a sensation
Evil creation, devastation
Now realize that it's too late
Apophis is your final fate
Get the bill of all you've done
Drown in the dark, chaos has just begun

Look around, see the cosmic rogue
Hard impact on the planet's surface
Atmosphere ready to explode
Asteroid bringing transmutation
World is falling down to sleep

Ancient god of wrath, insurgent of the night
He's living to destroy, to be the hardest plague of mankind
Stepped out of the fire, attorney of the damned
Roaming through the world, he's coventrizing all that he can

Earth, your lime is running out now
Clash is all that's for sure
Cursed and on the rush we fear
That times immemorial left a sensation
Evil creation, devastation
Now realize that it's too late
Apophis is your final fate
Get the bill of all you've done
Drown in the dark, chaos has just begun, has just begun
He is the one, now all's said and done, all's said and done
