

Lazy

Paramore

Pink Flowers in her body
Bubble gown floats
I see you and you loved me
Our gaze met

This is more than a novel
To me this is forever
This sit is for you, it just did
You were mad

I was sad
We went out, we always did
She wanted to be alone
At times, we don't understand her

We send gifts, she receive
When she sleeps, we come
If she forgets, we invite
The water gives good things

I knew you and I'm familiar
That was long ago, we're aware
We study and make steps
Making steps to get you

In this small house,
We were not tired
The fence extends our hard work
She strolls
