

The News (Re: The Linda Lindas)

Paramore

A war

War

A war

A war

On the far side

On the other side of the planet

And I've got

War

A war

A war

Right behind my eyes

Right behind 'em just like a headache

So I turn on

The news

Turn off

The news

Every second our collective heart breaks

All together every single head shakes

Shut your eyes, but it won't go away

Turn on, turn off the news

Every second our collective heart breaks

All together every single head shakes

Shut your eyes, but it won't go away

Turn on, turn off the news

Far

I'm far

So far

From a frontline

Quite the opposite, I'm safe inside

But I worry and I give money

And I feel useless behind this computer

And that's just barely scratched the surface of my mind

So I turn on

The news

Turn off

Turn on, turn off the news

Turn on

The news

Turn off

Every second our collective heart breaks

All together every single head shakes

Shut your eyes, but it won't go away

Turn on, turn off the news

Every second our collective heart breaks

All together every single head shakes

Shut your eyes, but it won't go away

Turn on, turn off the news

Y no saben vomitarlo
Rhetorical
Deplorable
Historical
And all along we called it normal
