Why

This is why
I don't leave the house
You say the coast is clear
But you won't catch me out
Oh, why?
This is why

Why

If you have an opinion
Maybe you should shove it
Or maybe you could scream it
Might be best to keep it

To yourself
To yourself

Why

This is why
I don't leave the house
You say the coast is clear
But you won't catch me out
Oh, why?
This is why

This is why
I don't leave the house
You say the coast is clear
But you won't catch me out
Oh, why?
This is why

Why

One step beyond your door
It might as well have been a free fall
One step beyond your door
Falling down an endless hall
One step beyond your door
Might as well have been a free fall
One step beyond your door
And I'm floating like a cannonball

Better have conviction
We want crimes of passion
Survival of the fittest
You're either with us or you can keep it

To yourself
To yourself
To yourself, yourself, yourself
To yourself
