

You First (Re: Remi Wolf)

Paramore

Two, three, four

Everyone is bad
So why are you a pacifist?
You should take it from me
Yeah, you should be full of it
Yeah, you said it with your chest now, baby
Now I'm living in a horror film
I'm the devil, I'ma break you down, slow life holdin'
Dents in the walls, you saw me coming, guess not

Just like a stray animal you keep feeding scraps
You're gonna give me your energy
Oh-oh-oh
And I'ma keep on coming back
Just like a stray animal you keep feeding scraps
You're gonna give me your energy
Oh-oh-oh
And I'ma keep on coming

Everyone is a bad guy
And there's no way, no way to know who's the worst
But karma's gonna come for all of us
And I hope, yeah, I hope, I just hope
She comes, comes for you first, oh
Oh, comes for you first, oh
Oh, comes for-

I hit you with a stick
Gonna hit you with a tide of bricks
I'm at the foot of your bed
Waiting for you to throw a fist
Which wolf will win now, baby?
Guess we're gonna have to wait and see
I like it when you're pissed off, fucked up in the head
It makes me feel a little less crazy, oh

Just like a stray animal you keep feeding scraps
You're gonna give me your energy
Oh-oh-oh
And I'ma keep on coming back
Just like a stray animal you keep feeding scraps
You're gonna give me your energy
Oh-oh-oh
And I'ma keep on coming

Everyone is a bad guy
And there's no way, no way to know who's the worst
But karma's gonna come for all of us
And I hope, yeah, I hope, I just hope
She comes, comes for you first, oh

Oh, comes for you first, oh
Oh, comes for you first
