When will I be able to let go of
These unfamiliar feelings
I hate getting stronger
Looked up at the sky hundred times
If I accept these feelings
I can't hide even with my eyes closed
Will they be mine?
(Scared to try)
Even in this beautiful world
My clock is still stopped
Now I can forget about tomorrow
And dream for a while
(Slowly forgetting the memories...)
Just want to cry
Just want to laugh
As if nothing happened

Like those leaves falling
And flowers blooming
I deceived myself
Hundreds and thousands
If I accept them
Will they be mine?
Impossible to leave
My future

I was just watching my bowl overflow
God's whim, burn my root so it doesn't heal again
Close my eyes and ears, failure doesn't go away
When someone say coward, make sure everyone can think of me

I don't want to grow old ugly

Like an echo brightening the low and long
Twenty-three, connecting subtle hearts
Sang a song for the departing silences
I still have an ambition

We're Sky Hundred

Things that twisted me and piled up
Come back to me as arrows
Even the courage to not be perfect
Isn't special anymore
Look at the past
There's only the future
Everyone's locked up

That dishonest sympathy
Is rotting me with misery
Looking for some answer
Am I qualified to sing?
Continuing, you and I

The sky is getting faster and
Those who have stopped are forgotten
I'm longing the middle
Change is too unfamiliar
Taxidermify me
Who blamed only the world
And then ruined himself

I'm always here even without you
Please be here even without me
I'm always here even without you
Please be here even without me

(You guys have watched too many movies
Are all movies real? They're movies because they're different from reality.)

(It feels like the lyrics are stuck in your heart, right?
You think the lyrics are all about you, right?
You're just enjoying the sadness.)

(Reality is sad, so why should the music be sad too?
You should listen to something bright to change the mood.)
(I'll try...)

Saw the sky
It rained
Hundreds of eyes
They're killing me

To just talk about myself
I'm overflowing with greed
I'm such a coward
Evoke me

Scared of the sincerity
I couldn't sing about you
My heart piled up
And then fell over

When the blue blooms
On the road without me

Another you
Evoke me

Want to tell people
That you existed
Want to sing
That you existed

Hundreds of me
Hundreds of you
Will last forever
Evoke me

When will I be able to let go of
These unfamiliar feelings
I hate getting stronger
Looked up at the sky hundred times

Just want to cry
Just want to laugh...

(I was always wondering, who am I.)
