Allaround

Parcels

I sleep to dawn
You and I, I recall
So I might adore a timed arrival

Try re-report
Every line, every wall
So I might adore a timed arrival

You wanted us to be
You wanted all alone
You didn't have to leave
You didn't have to go

You wanted us to be
You wanted all alone
You didn't have to leave now
You didn't have to go

You wanted us to be
You wanted all alone
You didn't have to leave
You didn't have to go
You didn't have to go
You didn't have to
You didn't have to

Why wait a while
When the woe won't resign?
I'll wait in line at the border

You wanted us to be
You wanted all alone
You didn't have to leave
You didn't have to go

You wanted us to be
You wanted all alone
You didn't have to leave now
You didn't have to go

You wanted us to be
You wanted all alone
You didn't have to leave now
You didn't have to go

You didn't have to go
(You didn't have to)
