

Anotherclock

Parcels

Stop, you're giving it
I'm not getting it
Stop, I'm not getting it
Another clock, it's upsetting it
It's upsetting my soul
Oh, I want back again

But I don't mind
I'm not taking it on
Luck, it gets imminent
Fuck, I'm not digging it
I'm not getting it wrong

Time will wait for you
When it's all been done
But we're all too young
The time we've taken to
Let it all be done
Has an open sum
Time will wait for you

You're not fitting in
You're just kicking in doors
Show a little remorse
Now you're not wishing it
There's no wishing it was
You don't listen no more

Time will wait for you
When its all been done
But we're all too young
The time we've taken to
Let it all be done
Hasn't opened some
Time will wait for you

I'm not getting it wrong
