

Hideout

Parcels

I close the door to all that I am
I called a lie, I told you all I've said
I failed even more than I understand
It's coming out of every wall I mend

You know that I keep my mind on
A note that I keep hiding so long
My love, so long

'Cause you know that I keep a hideout
And all that I'm thinking about is
'Cause you know that I keep a hideout
And all that I'm thinking about is

Time tells me more of who that I am
I'll kneel to all that will release my hand
I talk to the floor, I fight to pretend
You think that I will reach a point to mend?

You know that I keep my mind on
A note that I keep hiding so long
My love, so long

'Cause you know that I keep a hideout
And all that I'm thinking about is
'Cause you know that I keep a hideout
And all that I'm thinking about is

'Cause you know that I keep a hideout
And all that I'm thinking about is
'Cause you know that I keep a hideout
And all that I'm thinking about is