Parcels

Here I am again
Waiting for a call
This time it ain't coming
And I know I'm gonna walk
Back to her again
Waiting for a lie
Waiting for another one
Another way to waste my time

Even though I do not care
I wish that I would have you here
I wish that I could still believe
The love that once you gave to me
Even though I am alright
I wish I didn't see the light
The best thing I could ever find
The worst thing I would ever find

Here I am again
Looking a lie
Looking for a warmer way
Another glass of wasted wine
And yes, there's someone else
Yes, I'm feeling fine
Yes yes never better
It's not even on my mind, oh
It's not even on my mind

Even though I do not care
I wish that I would have you here
I wish that I could still believe
The love that once you gave to me
Even though I am alright
I wish I didn't see the light
The best thing I could ever find
The worst thing I would ever find
