

Withorwithout

Parcels

You were the world calling out my own name
You were the girl I fell beneath every day
You were the birds talking in my dream
You were the world I wish I'd never seen

You were the line, drawn in every way
You were divine, even though I'd say
You were the start of something I don't need
You were the world I wish I'd never seen

With or without you?
Better without you

Said I was more than a man in your way
Said I was yours till the end of the day
There was a time when I would have been
Over the moon sinking on my knees

You were the world calling out my own name
You were the girl I fell beneath every day
You were the birds talking in my dream
You were the world I wish I'd never seen
