Pardison Fontaine

Yeah

Let's do some real shit

Some for real shit

Look

Girl, you lookin' like the '90s Nia Long, a product of your mom

The girl in high school that every guy was sleepin' on

I love how you design, almond-shaped eyes

All Aaliyah in the face, but you Sade with the vibe

Girl, you look how Lamborghini's drive

If a woman tried to get with you I wouldn't be surprised

No, not even a little bit

In the era of double tappin' and lyin' in they captions

We don't need all them distractions

All these Instagram pages, I'm glad that you ain't famous

Girl, God damn, you underrated

If I wrote you a love letter I would need a hundred pages

Fifty to thank you exes and niggas who didn't make it

Boys who had they shot but missed and didn't take it

God damn, you underrated

You should send a invoice for all the time that they wasted

For all your patience you deserve payment, yeah, facts

Read in a text where you said when you see me you gon' fight me

Conversation cajun, you be talkin' spicy

Ayy, word

Sweatpants and white tee or dress fittin' tightly

You should have been here, you said, "You never invite me"

Once in a blue turned to you over here nightly

Cajun conversation, you be talkin' spicy

Hey, ayy, look

You like me passin' out my CD when no one played it

Girl, you underrated

We could make this forever, that's a quick flight to Vegas

Yeah, you underrated

You got work in the mornin', we would probably never make it

Invoice them boys for all the time that they wasted

Let them niggas know that you not nothin' to play with

For all your patience you deserve payment

Yeah, get your coin, word (Look)

You got bills that you payin', DMs you ignorin'

You don't even read 'em half the time, it's unimportant

And you leave the crib at eight, get back four in the mornin'

In a Honda right now, but I could see you in that foreign

You see hoes bein' flown, you thinkin' it must be nice

But you ain't goin' nowhere if you ain't bookin' the flight, right?

That's underrated, look

You know you look good in your skin and you comfortable

You could be just like them bitches if you wanted to

But you don't, ayy

You want the bag, not a bag

These bitches don't get that

Was down for a minute but stay tuned for the get back

Girl, you underrated
You more than your current situation and where you live at
In the gym every day, you workin' to get your shit back
That's underrated
