

Can't Stop The Rain

Pardyalone

I never really had a chance
Fucked up past, so it don't come easy
I never really meant to let me down
But here I am again
Tryna make sense of a world that just won't let me
I guess I'll find my own way out

Hurricane through my heart, tryna tear me apart
But I won't let it wash me away
It's an earthquake above, but I don't give a fuck
'Cause tonight I'm in love with all my mistakes

Hey, I'm all in, I can't stop the rain from fallin'
Fate been callin' me out
Wait, no stallin', I'm too high to hit rock-bottom
Brakes nowhere to be found

I can't stop the rain from fallin'
I can't stop the rain from fallin' down
I can't stop the rain from fallin'
I can't stop the rain from fallin' down

I go 'round and 'round again
Five-star dreams and it's way too early (Way too early)
Vivid vision all around
Whoever made these rules
I don't play by them
It may be the last time I say farewell

Hurricane through my heart, tryna tear me apart
But I won't let it wash me away
It's an earthquake above, but I don't give a fuck
'Cause tonight I'm in love with all my mistakes

Hey, I'm all in (Oh, yeah), I can't stop the rain from fallin'
Fate been callin' me out
Wait, no stallin', I'm too high to hit rock-bottom
Brakes nowhere to be found

I can't stop the rain from fallin'
I can't stop the rain from fallin' down
I can't stop the rain from fallin'
I can't stop the rain from fallin' down
