

Finally Breathe (Hey There)

Pardyalone

Hey there, Delilah, what's it like when you don't kiss me?
I'm a thousand miles away (Oh-oh)
Girl, I hope you miss me
Know I'm a piece of shit, that's what you hold against me
But I promise that I'll love you 'til (Oh-oh)
My cup is empty (Oh-oh)
Hey there, Delilah, what's it like when you're not with me?
I miss you in the times that we don't spend (Woah-oh-oh)
Do you even miss me?
Hey there, Delilah, God, I hope that you're listening (Listen to me)
I think about you every day, fuck all the distance

Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, and now I can finally breathe

Hey there, Delilah, think I took the lonely pill
Lately I've been in my head, always blamin' how I feel
Hey there, Delilah, think you know just what I mean
The last time I said I loved you
You just stared and looked at me (Woah-oh)
Broke up in the city of lies, can't hide behind my eyes
When you hear my songs, know it's over

Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, and now I can finally breathe

Day and night, I stay awake
I'm tryna fix this damn heartbreak
I'm losing sleep just tryna let you go (Oh)
I won't forget my mama said
"If you love that girl, then chase her there" (Oh-oh)
But I think it's too late because you're gone
Broken all my life, I feel it in my bones
Hey, Delilah (Oh-oh), hope you noticin' my pride
I've cried for long enough, I've wasted songs on us
So please leave my life
Delilah, we are done, go and find someone
Just please leave my life

Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, it's what you did to me
Oh, it's what you did to me
And now I'm finally free, oh-oh-oh
And Delilah, we are done
