

I'm The Dumb One

Pardyalone

I guess I'm the dumb one
I think I got a playground in my head
Gave you the keys for your troubles
For the lock inside my chest
Oh-woah-woah
I haven't left my room since it snowed
Broke as it gets, I'm way too stressed
My girl just left, and I think I'm depressed, so I say

Way too smart to act like I'm dumb
I just fuck my life up for fun
Oh, no, look at what I have done
I just fuck my life up for fun

Just say the word and I'm gone, don't try to tell me I'm wrong
'Cause no one hopeless and heartlessness misses me
I hope you hate this song, you know I don't give a fuck
I hope your life is shitty without me
Tired of feeling like I'm wasted
Everything you told me, it was never enough
I don't wanna wait for you to wake up
I'm getting tired of myself, I'm too numb, so I say

Way too smart to act like I'm dumb
I just fuck my life up for fun
Oh, no, look at what I have done
I just fuck my life up for fun

Ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
When you wake up, I'll be long gone
Ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
Way too smart to act like I'm dumb

Way too smart to act like I'm dumb
I just fuck my life up for fun
Oh, no, look at what I have done
I just fuck my life up for fun
