

Say So

Pardyalone

Know you called but I'm not home
(Ayo Natos)
Tell me why you still in my head
(You don't know the way between the moon)

Know you called but I'm not home
I go no question if you say so
Tell me why you still in my head
Probably 'cause you still in my bed
Know you called but I'm not home
Like is this real or am I dead
I only know you call me when you fucking lonely
And I'm like why?

Ooh demon girl don't waste my time
Ooh just say it's all on your mind and say you're mine
Don't waste the reasons and believe in love
Don't seek love
Don't waste the reasons that's what completes us
I'm fighting demons that's why I drink up
They said that I'm changing but I'm still fucked
I'm still hiding
Still trying to figure out what the fuck I'm finding
I wanna feel shit, yeah, yeah
I've been fighting demons inside myself, yeah, yeah

Know you called but I'm not home
I'd go no question if you said so
Tell me why you still in my head
Probably 'cause you still in my bed
Know you called but I'm not home
Like, is this real or am I dead?
I only know you call me when you fucking lonely

I ain't never been the type to question shit
I ain't no you type until I questioned it
The consequences in my head
And this heartbreak is from your hands
I'm broken, I don't wanna tell anybody I'm hopeless
Oh shit, started feeling like I'm drowning in the ocean
I been feeling like you just want me dead
But fuck, so do I
I been counting demons since you go to sleep at night
I get high from the words you reply with
I get high even when you reply
So don't

Know you called but I'm not home
I go no question if you say so
Tell me why you still in my head
Probably 'cause you still in my bed
Know you called but I'm not home
Like is this real or am I dead
I only know you call me when you fucking lonely
And I'm like why

Say what's on your mind when you in love
