

You're Always Coming Back

Pardyalone

I hope you like being a lonely soul, oh, yeah
You hate it every time I call your phone, oh, yeah

But you're always runnin' back to me like it's summer day, uh
No need to say sorry all the time
You're always gettin' mad at me, you're always so sad, uh
No need to say sorry one more time, 'cause
I'm never comin' back

Mhm-mhm-mhm, I tried to save us
I hope karma comes around and fucks your day up
I had roses in my hand for you, I came home
Now there's roses on this relationship's gravestone (Ooh)
I'll be alright, lil' baby
Bitch, you know I do not
But I've been lonely lately
Keep my hands right off my heart 'cause I've been swervin' late ly
I've been hurtin', baby
You made me crazy

You're always runnin' back to me like it's summer day, uh
No need to say sorry all the time
You're always gettin' mad at me, you're always so sad, uh
No need to say sorry one more time, 'cause
I'm never comin' back

You say you don't think I'm doing good without you
Huh, that's fine
It just sucks we got matching tattoos (Huh)
But that's life, life, life
I said I've been doing fine and I told ya
I think I've been eating good, granola
I'm in love with myself now, it's over
And it's over, it's over, it's over

You're always runnin' back to me like it's summer day, uh
No need to say sorry all the time
You're always gettin' mad at me, you're always so sad, uh
No need to say sorry one more time, 'cause
I'm never comin' back
