

Adored

Paris Hilton

So this is what it's like to be
Lying in bed 100% comfortable
Leaving your house thinking, "Wow, I got it all"
Mmm-hmm

So this is what it's like to be
Stood in a room holding you, locking eyes
Loving the kiss, feeling like paradise
Mmm-hmm

I thought
I thought love always came with a bitter taste or it wasn't real
But I'm not drowning in tears, had no idea till you looked at me

So this is what it's like to be
Adored, like to be adored
Anything and everything that I could ever wish for
Like to be adored, like to be all yours
Anything and everything that I could ever wish for
Like to be adored, like to be adored, like to be adored

So this is what it's like to be
Totally in harmony, and you can tell
Giving it all and getting it back from someone else
Feels nice when it's right, when it's right

I thought love always came with a bitter taste or it wasn't real
But I'm not drowning in tears, had no idea till you looked at me

So this is what it's like to be
Adored, like to be adored
Anything and everything that I could ever wish for
Like to be adored, like to be all yours
Anything and everything that I could ever wish for
Like to be adored, like to be adored, like to be adored

So this is what it's like to be
Adored, like to be adored, like to be adored
So this is what it's like to be
Love is it
