Paris Hilton

I don't really care what they think they know
They only see all the glitter and gold
Everybody leaves when the curtains close
But it's me and you at the end of the show

In the car, on the beach, in your arms
All I need

I know they'll remember me
For the glamor and fantasy
We know in reality
That loving you is my legacy
Your touch is a guarantee
Your kiss is my destiny
Tonight we'll make history
'Cause loving you is my legacy
Legacy
'Cause loving you is my legacy

I don't really care if we stay or leave (Let's go)
If it's cool with you, then it's cool with me
Never knew love could be so sweet
When I'm with you all the best things are free

In the car, on the beach, in your arms
All I need

I know they'll remember me
For the glamor and fantasy
We know in reality
That loving you is my legacy
Your touch is a guarantee
Your kiss is my destiny
Tonight we'll make history
'Cause loving you is my legacy
