Hey now
Just keep your patience
Just keep your patience
Just keep your patience

I know you hate where you're at
These things will never go back
I never wanted to feel that
These situations

Hey now

Just keep your patience
Just keep your patience
Just keep your patience

Woah, fill the tank, hit the road out of state (Uh)
Gotta blow, hit the switch, detonate (Uh)
I don't got any time, time to waste (Uh)
Got the juice, no, I don't concentrate (Uh)
Uh, oh, argue with my family, that was day-to-day
Leave the house for all the dreams I had to chase
Didn't come too close, but still got shit to say
Barely listened to what Papa had to say
Told me "Stay inside, and focus on my grades"
Since I been outside, got weight up on my name
Couldn't stay behind 'cause shit would stay the same
Now it's when I look up
Hard to focus, with the bullshit in my way (Uh)
Every time I look away it's something, wait (Uh)
Hold up wait (Uh), let me say (Uh)
Fuck opinions, don't care what they gotta say (Uh)

Yeah, oh
Woah (Yeah), woah
Don't wait to take control
Don't wait to take control
Don't wait to take control
Too late to take control for me
Don't wait to take control
Don't wait to take control
Don't wait to take control
It's too late to take control for me

(Don't wait to take control)
(Don't wait to take control)
(Don't wait to take control)
(It's too late to take control for me)
