A look without words wrapped around mouth
My feelings reflected in your eyes are opaque (Blank effect)
Under that empty color, lies my hidden desire
A space where silence and joy are entangled
You look impatient with a dizzying challenge
The more you dig in, the deeper you hide out
Tonight, no one notices, drowsy drunk
Looking for my lost memories

I'm the outlaw, prickly flesh
No emotion can ever stab me
I'm the outlaw, insanely mischievous pranks
My stronghold is too thick to shatter and break

You can't fill my blank, under the dark dawn
Slowly lock you in as if you'll freeze

You can't fill my blank, a little more recklessly
Twist all the expectations you have
You can't fill my blank, drunk alone in the deep night
Explore the chaos that embraces me
You can't fill my blank, under the dark shade
Twist all your corrupt expectations

Come a little closer, act more rude
If you want, I'll show you a look I've never shown (Trembling breath)
Squeeze but the memory of flying to the same corner of a room
Hiding your face in the smoke (Mixed with her deep sigh)

I'm the outlaw, prickly flesh
No emotion can ever stab me
I'm the outlaw, insanely mischievous pranks
My stronghold is too thick to shatter and break

A button ticking somewhere in my head
A booming voice resonates
Staggering body (Staggering body)
