

Empty

Parker Millsap

I am a cloud once it has fallen
I am the tank the engine is stallin'
I am the words of ex-lovers callin'
I am down and I am crawling

I'll say it simply
I have been draining
I am empty
But now it's raining

I am the place we used to go
I am the light that doesn't glow
I am the brawler after the blow
I am the venue after the show

I'll say it simply
I have been draining
I am empty
But now it's raining
But now it's raining
