Your might is in doubt
The violation against the mind
Always prevails as a crucial fight

Don't hide your heart behind this armour
I have no weapon and it's not your war
Don't hide your eyes behind this helmet
You're not an astronaut, don't dress like that

The routine is encouraged
Accept the rules and be punished
The discipline of an outrage
Follows the order to the upstage

Don't hide your heart behind this armour
I have no weapon and it's not your war
Don't hide your eyes behind this helmet
You're not an astronaut, don't dress like that
