

Are You Really on Drugs?

Parks, Squares and Alleys

You've been looking for my sign on a pavement
You will never understand I am different
I will slip away again like a phantom
Will I be mentioned anyway on your headstone?

Why are you calling me all day? I barely know you
Is it hard for me to say you have no value?
You would have never turned my life into a bad dream
If I had given you some time but you'd been unseen

Are you really on drugs?
Are you really on drugs?

Are you really on drugs?
Are you really on drugs?
Are you really on drugs?
Are you really on drugs?
