

Bathroom Song

Parks, Squares and Alleys

I lose, I lose all my friends
And every day I think that this is end
I am talking to myself in the bathroom
Oh, you should see this wonder bloom

I like to hope the sun'll be rising up again
The harmony in me, oh make it easy, easy

I lose, I lose all my friends
And every day I think that this is end
I am talking to myself in the bathroom
Oh, you should see this wonder bloom
