

Take Me Away

Parks, Squares and Alleys

Please just take me away
Everything collapses Symphony will play
when we lie in a caskets

Sky is gray again
Happy days are coming
But it kills me when I just need you darling

I know the truth
we are all going to die
and if you'll cry anyway Nobody will be saved,
all our souls stuck somewhere
Far away
Far away
Far away
Far away
Far away
