

Zero Division Error

Parks, Squares and Alleys

I was made of thorns
Till I met the heather
Now I bleed in your arms
'Cause I said "never"

Zero division error

And if you're looking for the void
I'll be the darkness
Whatever happens now
Just let it happen

Does a neutron star collapse remind you of yourself?

Your soul was torn apart
And left in despair
They broke your fragile heart
Abandoned somewhere

Vile teenage nightmare
And we were chasing fatal faith
Revered Panarion
I'd pick the Golden Gate
Or Red Wall Canyon
But I chose the life itself as the evil I've discovered

I could be your trail
Your guide to the drift
The sable thrilling tale

Was written backwards and then it disappeared
Was written backwards and then it disappeared
