

Future

Parov Stelar

Forward I don't wanna go back
I don't wanna fall before the fight
I can be the hero of the night
If you let me

I kept running from my problems
Letting everybody push me down
It took a little time to turnaround
But heavy is the head that wears the crown (yeah)

Are you ready for the future
(Cause I am)
Ready for a new day
(Cause I am)
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!

Are you ready for the future
(Cause I am)
Ready for a new day
(Cause I am)
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!

Are you ready for the future
Ready for a new day
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!

Are you ready for the future
(Cause I am)
Ready for a new day
(Cause I am)
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!

I have been meaning to share with you how I'm feeling
I should have started as soon as they starting spreading their rumours
Cause I'm a young king throwing from the back of the line
I get what's mine, free your mind, take another shot better hit this time

I want it back I ain't running back
I might never loose
I'm a rockstar baby
I already payed my dues
I been through the worst of it
Now my passion is permanent
Eyes front you can watch me win and maybe you'll learn from it

Are you ready for the future
Ready for a new day
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!

Are you ready for the future
(Cause I am)
Ready for a new day

(Cause I am)
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!

Are you ready for the future
(Cause I am)
Ready for a new day
(Cause I am)
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!

Are you ready for the future
Ready for a life worth living
When the world starts singing again!
Ready for a new day

Ready for a new day
